

MARQUESA

Dramatic cliffs, pristine beaches and majestic palm trees: the Marquesas Islands tick all the boxes. Add a rich historical past to this already intriguing combination, and you can see why the Polynesian archipelago inspired the Marquesa collection. This exclusive wallcovering captures the natural splendour of these islands, in addition to paying tribute to their rich cultural heritage. It is a collection with influences from indigenous art and centuries-old crafts.

Fenua

The Fenua – 'island' in Marquesan – design brings the graceful palm trees that line the coastlines of the Marquesan islands to life. The design is carefully 'burned' into the finely woven sisal using an ingenious laser technique, creating a sophisticated embossed pattern with a luxurious texture.

Fenua is available in 4 colourways.

Atuona

Atuona's elegant chevron pattern combines the natural charm of paper and hessian in a sophisticated weave with a bohemian twist. This design is named after the historic village of Atuona, where the painter Paul Gauguin and the singer Jacques Brel found their final resting place. Both artists fell in love with the French Polynesian island and never left.

Atuona is available in 5 colourways.

Taio

This design pays homage to classic Polynesian wood carvings and their intricate, rounded shapes. The pattern is carefully embroidered onto a delicate sisal fabric and incorporated into the weave's structure. The subtly shiny background shimmers delicately through the weave, adding sophistication. The name of this design was inspired by Taiohae, the capital of the Marquesas Islands.

Taio is available in 6 colourways.

Miro

Miro is a unique textile wallcovering featuring a classic pattern that combines delicate embroidery with decorative wooden beads. This design takes its name from miro, a local variety of rosewood from which many Polynesian works of art and furniture are made. This woven wallcovering adds texture, depth and a sense of sophistication to any interior.

Miro is available in 2 colourways.

Noble

Noble is a plain textile wallcovering with the look and feel of soft suede, imparting warmth and adding another subtle dimension to any wall.

Noble is available in 10 colourways.

Cyperus

This design features a geometric pattern that has been carefully printed on natural grass. Metallic foil adds sheen and a luxurious final touch. The design is named after Cyperus marquisensis, a species of grass native to the Marquesas Islands, imparting sophistication and a hint of exoticism.

Cyperus is available in 5 colourways.
