Coti

'Bois coti' is the French term for spalted or flamed wood, like the wood in this design. Coti is completely at home in bold and arresting interiors. Made from beautiful flamed wood veneer and inlaid in a block pattern, this is the kind of wallcovering that warrants a second look.

Under the Sycamore Tree

This stunning panorama is crafted from the finest wood veneer and inlaid by hand into a unique pattern. Each piece of coloured wood veneer has been arranged in different directions and shapes, creating a stunning scene of sycamore trees. The grain and nuances of the wood, a living natural product, transform this wallcovering into a one-of-a-kind masterpiece.

Pristine

This sophisticated wallcovering has a unique gauze weave: a special, open structure combining matt and lurex threads for a subtle sheen. The open-weave fabric is pleated horizontally and vertically and pasted onto a coloured background, layering depth and luxury to your space.

Pristine is available in 5 colourways.

Joie

Exuberant Joie is a wallcovering that will lift your mood. This geometric design features the graceful teardrop-shaped figures and subtly curved ends of a Paisley pattern, embellished with scrolls, flowers and other decorative details. Striking gold printed accents enhance the design.

Joie is available in 2 colourways.

Impasto

This design is named after a centuries-old art painting technique. Undiluted paint is applied thickly with a coarse brush, enhancing the wallcovering's structure and creating a very realistic result. Impasto is printed on metallic foil, combining the best of both worlds: the artisanal in perfect harmony with the industrial.

Impasto is available in 5 colourways.
